

Company Policy Handbook

Employee policies and workplace guidelines

1. Working Hours and Attendance

Employees are expected to follow their assigned working hours and maintain regular attendance. If an employee expects to be late or absent, they should inform their manager as early as reasonably possible.

2. Leave Policy

Employees may request planned leave through the company's approved leave process. Unplanned absence should be reported promptly. Leave approval is subject to business requirements and applicable company rules.

3. Remote and Hybrid Work

Where remote or hybrid work is permitted, employees must remain available during agreed working hours, protect company information, and maintain a suitable work environment.

4. Code of Conduct

Employees are expected to behave professionally and respectfully. Harassment, discrimination, bullying, violence, and inappropriate workplace conduct are not permitted.

5. Information Security

Company systems, credentials, documents, and customer information must be protected. Employees must use strong passwords, avoid sharing credentials, and report suspected security incidents promptly.

6. Confidentiality

Confidential company, customer, employee, and business information must not be disclosed to unauthorized persons. Employees should follow applicable data-protection and confidentiality requirements.

7. Acceptable Use of Technology

Company devices, networks, software, and accounts should primarily be used for authorized business purposes. Employees must not install unauthorized software or use company systems for unlawful activities.

8. Performance and Professional Development

Employees are expected to perform their responsibilities effectively, participate in feedback and review processes, and complete required training.

9. Health and Safety

Employees should follow workplace health and safety procedures and promptly report hazards, accidents, or unsafe conditions.

10. Policy Compliance

Employees are responsible for understanding and following applicable company policies. The company may update policies when business, legal, or operational requirements change.
